

Consider

Michael E. Stone

Consider a manuscript
manu-scriptum
copied by hand.

Consider writing whole books
day by day by day,
by hand.

Consider making the paper
laying polishing trimming,
by hand.

Ruling marking framing
cutting sewing binding,
by hand.

To make a book, yes a book.

Today
can we even conceive of doing that?
we barely read,
never mind write.
